strengthening in lines of communication and relationship between foreign trade union leaders and their US counterparts, the program aims to increase and strengthen knowledge information and perceptions concerning the kind of technology that is most appropriate for developing countries particularly from the viewpoint of improving the potential for increased employment and better income distribution and to enable discussion of political developments and economic trends that may impact on trade union participation in international forms in coming months. Would you please welcome these gentlemen to the Legislature. Would you please stand. Welcome to the Legislature and good luck. Did you want to read something in, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Mr. President, a report of registered lobbyists for the week of May 6th through May 11th.

Mr. President, Enrollment and Review reports LB 32, 215, 327, 451 and 619 all correctly engrossed.

Mr. President, the next motion we have is to suspend Rule 6, Section 7(b) so as to permit consideration of bills 234, 234A, 469, 607, 608, 617 and 630 on Final Reading today.

SPEAKER NICHOL: We need to suspend the rules for the reading of some of these bills that are coming up. So, Mr. Clerk can we do all that at one time? One of those that needs the suspension of the rules is LB 630. The question is shall the rules be suspended so we can read all of these bills today? All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Why is it necessary to suspend the rules if you. . . I was talking to Senator Marsh.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The bill has to be down two days, the bill has to be here two days and it has only been here one day. So we need to suspend the rules so we can read the bills today instead of having to wait till tomorrow.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That is not required by the Constitution, is it? That is only a rule of the Legislature, isn't it?

SPEAKER NICHOL: That is correct.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Then I don't think we have to suspend the rules. I think we can just do whatever we want to do as we did earlier today.
